ITRI PROTERO is an ingredient extracted from pineapple leaf. Here we successfully turn agro-waste, agricultural by-product into active ingredients and practice the concept of zero waste successfully. This is the first pineapple based zero waste skincare. With high polyphenols and protease content, ITRI protero exhibit excellent antioxidative ability ◦

Proteo received the Sustainable Beauty Award in 2023, giving recognition to teams within ITRI who are pushing the boundaries of sustainability in the beauty industry.
